Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah

Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah (1876-1948) was the founder of Pakistan and served as its first Governor-General.

Born in Karachi, he trained as a barrister in London before joining politics. Jinnah was a key leader of the All-India Muslim League and worked tirelessly for the creation of a separate homeland for Muslims of the Indian subcontinent.

His leadership, vision, and determination led to the formation of Pakistan on August 14, 1947. He is remembered as the 'Father of the Nation' in Pakistan.
